

Article Of Organization

A set of formal documents filed with the Secretary of State to legally document the creation of a new business entity.

Dear Business Owner,

We would like to convey our congratulations to you on the successful registration of your new company. We hope you enjoy terrific success with your business journey ahead.

Enclosed is the recorded copy of your Articles of Organization. Please review the details and keep them safely in your company records or corporate kit.

Please remember these three important government requirements:

- Wyoming requires filing an annual report and paying the annual license tax by or before the first day of your LLC's anniversary month. If not filed on time, a $100 penalty applies, and the company may be marked delinquent or dissolved by the state.
- Your annual registered agent fee is also due each year, typically in the same month as your LLC's anniversary.
- Important: Every LLC must file a federal tax return annually—even with no income. Filing requirements depend on your LLC's structure. Need help? Contact us.

Thank you once again, and we wish you every success in your business journey. If you're happy with our services, we'd greatly appreciate it if you shared FormLLC with a friend or business associate. We're committed to keeping the LLC formation process simple and stress-free for entrepreneurs like you.

Sincerely,

Filing Department
